

Vesna Petkovic // 3SECRETS

Vesna Petkovic is a singer, composer and voice teacher who can look back at a performing career of over 25 years. Born 1974 in Nis, Serbia, she moved to Austria, in 1996 to study jazz vocals and singing at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Graz.

Ms. Petkovic quickly became a part of the local music scene where she performed as a singer in various projects such as the Sandy Lopicic Orkestar, the Vesna Petkovic Band, Who Man Dog, Sosamma or the David Bowie Tribute Special. She thereby became renown throughout Europe for her strong foundation of skills as a singer and performer.

"A new one" is her first CD as a solo artist, which was released in 2007 and features Ms. Petkovic qualities as a singer-songwriter and composer. Her latest Album "3SECRETS" was released early in 2018 on Southchord Records, displaying a broad panorama of musical styles. Recorded together with performers from over 10 countries, the new Album is a journey around the world starring the diverse countries of origin and musical styles, from Jazz, to the musical traditions of the Balkans, African influences and spiced with a pinch of Classic and Pop. It comes as Double Vinyl, one marbled magenta, one marbled neon blue, CD or Digital Download with Artwork by San Antonio based Artists Marcy McChesney marcymcchesney.com & Farad Ibrahimović.
